EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE

PhD, The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio 2003

Major: Human Ecology (Textile Science)

Dissertation, "Textiles as Indicators of Hopewellian Culture Burial Practices."

MS, The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio 2000

Major: Human Ecology (Textile Science)

Thesis, "Experimental Replication of Dyeing: Toward an Understanding of Dyeing Processes used in Prehistoric Eastern North America."

BA, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 1995

Major: Anthropology

Additional Educational Experiences

- Sustainability in the Textile Supply Chain: Analysis throughout Cotton Production, Cotton Inc., University of Missouri, June 4-6, 2013.
- Gamification: Applying Gaming Principles to Your Teaching Webinar, March 12, 2013.
- American Association of Textiles Chemist and Colourists, Protective Textiles Webinar, Jan. 29, 2013.
- Improving Student Leadership: Strategies and Techniques that Increase Learning Possibilities, 2012 Faculty Institute University of Alabama, Sept. 25-26, 2012.
- CHES Research and Scholarship Workshop, March 24, 2011.
- Sabbatical, New Mexico and Arizona, Fall 2010.
- IRB Re-Certification, Spring 2010.
- Professional Writing Seminar, University of Alabama, January 12, 2007.
- Turnitin Seminar, University of Alabama, January 22, 2007.

- College of Human Environmental Sciences WebCT Seminar, University of Alabama, September 8, 2006.
- David Bauer Grant Writing Seminar Update, University of Alabama, Dec. 9, 2006.
- David Bauer Grant Writing Seminar, University of Alabama, August 21-22, 2006.
- Exploring Excellence in Teaching Week, University of Alabama, February 20-23, 2006. Attendee
- Techtextil North America, March 28-30, 2006. Atlanta, Georgia. Attendee
- Helped to Host Shifu Workshop for Clothing, Textiles and Interior Design Students at the University of Alabama, September 2005.

The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio

6/1997-6/1999

Research Associate, Historic Costume and Textiles Collection, Human Ecology

- Database management
- Cataloging
- Exhibition preparation
- Storage management
- Liaison between collection and public
- Historic research

Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah

1/1993-4/1995

Executive Assistant and Exhibit Preparer, Museum of Peoples and Cultures,
Anthropology Museum

- Database management
- Cataloging
- Exhibition preparation
- Storage management
- Liaison between collection and public
- Archaeological and anthropological research
- Responsible for physical year update

Area of Expertise:

Fibers: cellulose and protein fiber characterization; single tensile testing; statistical analysis; digital imaging; image analysis software.

Characterization: scanning electron microscopy; optical microscopy; infrared spectroscopy; spectroscopy color analysis; standard textile testing and evaluation procedures (ASTM).

Museum: database management; cataloging; exhibition preparation; storage management; liaison between collection and public; historic and archaeological research.
